Introduction by EJU President

Dear Judo Friends,

The European Judo Championships for Juniors held in Prague is an event of great importance in the life of European judo family. Those talented competitors fighting for medals here are potential champions and leaders of their national senior representations in near future. This new generation, fresh blood of European judo, will come to its prime years during next Olympic period with a vision of the Olympic Games in London 2012, few most talented can even reach Beijing 2008 Olympics. To make vision true takes a lot of efforts and I wish all fighters at EC Juniors 2007 to make important steps on that long way here in Prague.

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome all of the delegations of the participating countries and to wish them much success, great performances for their competitors and that they return home with pleasant memories of the Czech Republic.

President
