INTRODUCTION BY THE PORTUGUESE JUDO FEDERATION PRESIDENT

In the name of the Portuguese Judo Federation, it is a privilege and an honor to welcome all the distinguished members of the national teams (athletes, referees, coaches and officials) taking part in the European Judo Championship 2008.

A warm welcome also to the members of the great European Judo family, that come to our country to support their national teams.

We organized this Championship with great consideration for the well-being of everyone participating in this event: we chose a nice area of Lisbon, with the Sports Hall at walking distance from the Hotels where the official delegations will be lodged, and this will represent added comfort for the athletes, who are the principal reason for this event; also, the surrounding area will provide everything a visitor might want, from walks along the river Tagus to shopping areas and restaurants.

We expect that your stay in Lisbon will be a pleasant one, and that you will take home with you only nice memories of the time spent in our capital city.

This year's Championship is a special one: it is held in the same year as the Olympic Games in Beijing, the most important of all Sports Event of the four year period now coming to an end. It will serve as a testing ground of the capacities of the European athletes and will help select the representatives of our Continent in Beijing.

We sincerely hope that this will be a championship to remember only for good reasons, and that the highest sporting standards will prevail.

Best regards,

António lopes Aleixo
President of the Portuguese Judo Federation
