Individual European Championships (Under 23) Women and Men

INTRODUCTION BY HOST COUNTRY PRESIDENT

Dear Athletes and Sports Officials,

It is with particular pleasure that I take this opportunity to welcome you personally and on behalf of the Croatian Judo Federation and Organizing Committee of the European Judo Championships under 23.

Zagreb is a city of a great sport tradition and more than a half of century ago first judo club in Croatia was established here; today many young athletes study and train judo in Zagreb.

Besides great sport results, organization of such a big sport event like this one is also an achievement. It is at the same time an opportunity to demonstrate our organizational skills to the participants, sport public and all judo sympathizers. This event is also an opportunity to show all the beauty of judo as Olympic sport, and sport that make us healthier in all life stages, enabling us to keep up well with demands of modern life-style.

I trust that you will be pleased with our hospitality and that you will also find time to get acquainted with our city that is attracting more and more tourists each day.

I wish you all the best on the Championships and hope that you will leave Zagreb with pleasant memories and that you will also come back.

Dr. Sanda Čorak

President of Croatian Judo Federation
